

Apostrophe check

Each sentence below contains one or more errors involving apostrophes. Rewrite the sentence correctly.

1. The library's open hour's have changed since last years' renovations.
 2. Its going to take a few week's to complete the work on the oval.
 3. Please return all books to the librarian's before Friday.
 4. The councillors opinions were divided on the proposal.
 5. We're replacing all of the bench's in the parks.
 6. The community centre offers yoga, painting and childrens classes.
 7. The playgrounds equipment is being inspected for safety.
 8. I dont think its a good idea to close the road's during market day.
 9. Residents' concerns were heard at last night's meeting.
 10. The cafe's in Winchelsea are well known for their scone's.
 11. That car with the flat tyre is Daves.
 12. We have reviewed the reports from both manager's.
 13. You're welcome to use the centre's facilities until 5pm.
 14. One of the table's in the office had cracks all over it.
 15. They're adding new sign's to the walking trails next week.
-

Bonus Challenge

Rewrite the paragraph below, correcting all apostrophe errors:

Its important that Council listen's to residents concerns. The community's feedback helps shape Council's decisions. In next weeks newsletter, we'll include update's from each departments manager's. Dont forget to have your say before the deadlines passed.