

Capitalisation Check

Each sentence below contains at least one capitalisation error. Highlight any letter that are incorrectly capitalised.

1. This Winter, Council will repair roads across the Region.
2. Residents can contact council's Planning Officers for further Information.
3. Our Mayor and Councillors are committed to delivering Sustainable Solutions.
4. The Library offers free Internet access, computer classes, and Children's Storytime.
5. Please visit the Community Hub on Grossmans Road for more Assistance.
6. The team that handles community engagement is running a survey on Local Transport.
7. You can apply for a Building Permit online via the Shire Website.
8. The event will be held at Kurrambee Myaring community centre in Torquay.
9. We're working closely with the Department of Energy. Environment, and Climate Action (DEECA) to manage Fire Risk.
10. All dogs must be kept on a lead in Public Areas.
11. The Annual Budget was adopted by council on Tuesday.
12. There is a Meeting scheduled for next Monday at the Anglesea Memorial Hall.
13. Our Environmental Officers work year-round to protect Native Wildlife.
14. The school holiday program includes Art workshops and Beach Safety Sessions.
15. We are looking for support from State Government and other funding bodies.

Bonus: Highlight all words that should be capitalised surf coast shire council is proud to support local artists and community groups. each year, we offer grants to encourage creative projects that strengthen our region. for more information, visit the arts and culture section of our website or contact our grants officer.